est Talk on "True Manhood."

The meetings being conducted under the auspices of the Young Men's Caristian Association by Ferdinand Schiverea, the evangelist, of New York, have stirred the men of the city, and it is predicted that the great meeting for men to-morrow of Music will rank in results with any smeeting ever held.

Schiverea is a Freat speaker to men His directness, its fearlessness and his aptness in illustration make him peculiarly attractive. To-morrow afternoon he will know the second of the fearlessness and his aptness in illustration make him peculiarly attractive. To-morrow afternoon he will know him for the fearlessness and his aptness in illustration make him peculiarly attractive. To-morrow afternoon he will know him to the second in the attention of men from start to finish and send conviction to their hearts.

The musical attractions will be exceptionally fine. The Grace Episcopal Church choir of twenty voices will sing, and Haddon S. Watkins, Richmond's sweetest tenor, will be there. The doors will open promptly at three o'clock, and the meeting will start just as soon as the house is full. That there will be a crowd is certain, since the railroad department has adjourned its meeting, desiring in every way to assist in the good work that is being done by Evangelist Schriverea. This will draw several hundred men into the meeting. The railroad workers will all be there, including Secretary Thomas. Yesterday the big school-room at Smithdeal College was filled with students, as Art. Schriverea addressed them, while over 400 men heard him at the Locomotive Works at noon. To-morrow all classes of men will be present—the rich and the poor, the banker and the workingman. All are cordially invited.

The large hall of the association building will be used for the boys' meeting, which will be held at 2:45 o'clock, instead of 3. Mr. Schriverea will speak at exactly three o'clock, and If the boys want to hear him, they must be on time, as he goes to the Academy at half-pust three Every boy in Richmond
